Provisit Science is a substitutive private health insurance for visiting academics, PhDs and visiting scientists in Germany (in accordance with section 146 Insurance Supervision Act (VAG), section 193 (3) German Insurance Contract Act (VVG)). It offers comprehensive health insurance coverage at an affordable price.

With Provisit Science, you can insure yourself for up to 60 months in Germany and throughout Europe. But you are also covered after the maximum insurance period has expired, as you are then automatically transferred to an unlimited tariff. There is no age limit - so you can insure yourself and your accompanying family members regardless of age.
